[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, VA., May 30.—Mrs. Fleming Hunt entertained the South-west Shakespeare Club at her home on Allison Avenue, S. W., on Monday afternoon. The afternoon was spent at guessing book titles. Each guest was given a blank book in which to write the names of the books which were guessed from pictures suggesting the title, under which the name of the author was written. Miss Mary Work won the prize for the greatest number of guesses. Dainty refreshments were served.

Scottsville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SCOTTSVILLE, VA., May 30.—A very delightful reception was given at "The Shadows" on Tuesday evening by Mrs. Jacinto V. Periera, in honor of her guest, Mrs. William H. Strother, of Lynchburg. The pretty lawn was strewn with Japanese lanterns, and the house attractively decorated with flowers for the occasion. One of the features of the evening was a beautiful selection, recited by Mrs. Strother. The guests were also entertained with music on piano and graphophone. Delicious refreshments of salad, olives, crackers, salted peanuts, iced tea, strawberries, cakes and vanilla and strawberry cream were served during the evening. The hostess and her guest of honor, as well as the other ladies in the assembly, were handsomely gowned. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jacinto V. Periera, Mrs. William H. Strother and daughter, Miss Virginia Strother, of Lynchburg; Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Blair, of Scottsville; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parkinson, Mrs. A. S. Bell, Mr. H. G. Harris, Mr. Charles Dorrier, Mr. James Dorrier and Miss Sarah Carrington, of Houston, Va.; Mr. C. B. Harris, Jr., and Miss Alexina Harrison, of Scottsville; Mr. and Mrs. Marjorie Harris, Miss Dimple Blair and Misses Marietta and Lucie Powers. The Woman's Afternoon Whist Club was charmingly entertained on Friday afternoon by Mrs. Douglas Patterson. The guests present were: Miss Lucie Harrison Powers, Mrs. Virginia Bowles, Miss Alexina Harrison, Mrs. Frank Parkinson, Miss Helen Harris, Miss Sarah Carrington, Miss Annie Barrar and Miss Willie Harrison. The hostess was assisted by Miss Powers in serving very dainty refreshments.

Miss Wallace, of Norfolk, is the guest of Miss Clara Pitts.

Mr. Frank Harris left a few days ago for West Virginia, where he has accepted a business position.

Mrs. Burton Powers and Miss Mackie Powers, of Clarke county, are guests of Mrs. D. P. Powers.

Misses Berta and Berta Fox, who have been teaching in the South, are expected home shortly.

Miss Marjorie Harris arrived home from Raleigh, N. C., on Friday evening.

Miss Sarah Carrington left on Wednesday for her home in Halifax county.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
MARTINSVILLE, VA., May 30.—The senior class of the Martinsville High School have issued invitations to the commencement exercises to be held at the senior class building on June 5th. The graduates this year are Misses Sadie H. Mullins and Ella Cliff and Mr. G. R. Dudley, Jr.

The closing exercises of the Classical Female Seminary here will take place on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week. The musical recital will be held at the seminary on Monday evening, and the graduation exercises at the Broad Street Baptist Church Tuesday evening.

The daughters of the Confederacy are preparing for an elaborate celebration of Decoration Day on June 3d. The graves of the Confederate veterans in Oakwood will be decorated in the morning, after which the literary exercises will be held at Brown's Warehouse. Prof. Walker, of Blacksburg, will be the orator of the day. The speech given will be followed by a dinner to the old soldiers and other veterans.

Miss Corinne Brown, of Martinsville, is a distinguished graduate in music of Sullivan College, Bristol, Va., this year. Miss Brown's musical recital took place in Bristol Monday evening and was highly praised by the press of that city. Misses James M. Smith and John R. Smith, Mrs. Brown's grandmother and uncle, of Martinsville, attended the recital.

Mrs. John W. Carter returned last week from a visit of a few days to friends in Halifax county.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parrish and son, Master John Parrish, Jr., of Smithfield, Va., who have been guests of relatives here for the past two weeks, returned home on Monday.

Mr. E. M. Dickinson returned Monday from a visit to his sister, Mrs. Putzel, of Newport News, Va. Mr. Dickinson was accompanied to Newport News by his daughter, who will remain with their aunt for some time.

Mrs. John T. Penn and children returned last week from a pleasant visit of several weeks to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Bowe, of Richmond.
